THE SCHOOL SONG

Here where once Rome's mating spirit burned
Above in Europe's dungeons of despair,
Here where then the cruel yoke was sprung
And where hard duty lighted up the way,
Here we solemnly shall fulfill our vows
To bear it like a victor's loyal crown.

Chorus

Let the sword of just endeavor
Like lightning-flash be never sheathed,
Let it be a vivid symbol
Of learning, wisdom, truth besought,
Let it fight from battles near
To keep our school in battles won.

We in sure with selfless soul must yield
Our sum of gifts to history's quiet men,
We our Father's faith must make our shield
And grip eternal freedom more and more,
Culture here with opening may link hands
To lead our men where manly virtue stands.

Chorus
