HERE SCHOOL BONG

Here where once Beke's soaring spirit soared
Above its Europe's dangers of decay,
Here where then the way yoke was spurned
And where hand duty lighted up the way.
Here we inherit that fulfilled vision
To bear it like a victor's head crown.

Chorus:

Let the sword of past endeavor
Like lightning-flash be never sheathed.
Let it be a vivid symbol
Of learning, wisdom, truth beguethed.
Let it light from business never
To keep our school in honour sheathed.

We in race with wilful and want yield
Our own of gifts to history's quiet store,
We our Patriot's faith must make our shield
And grip eternal freedoms more and more.
Cotton here with quaking way let hands
To lead our own where manly virtue stands.

Chorus.

Words by W. E. Lewis.
