BEHOLD SCHOOL HOME

Here where once Bala's soaring spirit burned
Alone in Europe's dungeons of decay,
Here where then the easy yoke was spurned
And where hard duty lighted up the way.
Here no labor that fulfilled man
To him it lies a victor's loyal crown.

Chorus:

Let the sword of past endeavor
Like lightning-hare be never identified.
Let it be a vivid symbol
Of learning, wisdom, truth bequeathed.
Let it fight from business men
To keep our school in honor wreathed.

We in turn with willow and mist yield
Our own of gifts to history's quiet store,
We our Father's faith once made our shield
And grip eternal freedoms more and more.
Culture here with quivering eye links hands
To lead our own where manly strong stands.

Chorus:

Words by W. E. Brown.

Mus. by J. Kim.
